2024 SEASON

Celebrating 50

Chautauqua Opera

OUR LEGACY

Ninety-five years ago marked Chautauqua Opera's debut with such notables as Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edison and Henry Ford in attendance.

Since then, Chautauqua Opera has presented nearly 500 productions spanning over 150 titles, ranging from classical masterpieces to contemporary works.

Over the past five decades, the company's Young Artist program has welcomed hundreds of singers, propelling many into illustrious careers that have graced the world's most prestigious stages.

Generations of families have experienced opera for the first time here at Chautauqua in Norton Hall, the Amphitheater, or in recital or the signature opera invasions.

Opera is a vital and irreplaceable piece of the performing arts program at Chautauqua!

CHAUTAUQUA OPERA GUILD — JOIN US

Over the last 50 years, the Guild has spearheaded many initiatives to enrich Chautauqua Opera, the Chautauqua and Western New York communities, and our young artists and audiences.

Join us as we continue to build on Chautauqua Opera's legacy and elevate its place in the Chautauqua mix!

ENSURING THE FUTURE

Your financial support through membership, in addition to long-term sustainability through The Chautauqua Opera Guild Endowment Fund, is your opportunity to impact Chautauqua programming directly, now and into the future.

The Chautauqua Opera Guild Endowment Fund seeks to ensure Chautauqua Opera has a future as bright as its shining legacy, opera continues to be an integral part of the community, and we continue to inspire future singers and audiences.
